

It's Meeting Time!

We'll be meeting this Saturday, October 15th at Southminster Presbyterian Church at 9:30 - 11:30 a.m. for a potluck brunch. This meeting will be in conjunction with Grateful and Giving: a benefit for Norman Binkley Elementary. See details below!

Don't forget to vote on November 8th! You can find your Polling location by visiting the Davidson County election commission here.

Grateful & Giving is a benefit for Norman Binkley Elementary School. We collect gift cards from walmart as well as socks and underwear for the students. Click here for more information and to RSVP on Nextdoor.com.

A screenshot of the Nextdoor.com website showing a neighborhood map. The map is color-coded by status: green for members, yellow for invited, and pink for no members. There are several orange treat icons on the map. A sidebar on the left shows the neighborhood name "Caldwell-Abbey Hall", 840 members, and 586 households. It also includes a legend and a button to "Invite neighbors".

Celebration of Nashville Neighborhoods

A great time was had by all at Neighborhoods Resource Center's 4th annual Nashville Neighborhood Celebration. The weather was gorgeous making it a perfect day to enjoy the festivities.

Ellen Britton did us proud by emceeding this years Battle of the Bands while Bobby King served as music judge again this year.

A big shout out to Chris Harmon who bravely tasted all the chili and helped pick the competition winners.

Doug Hausken coordinator for the Neighborhood Salon brought together a great group of panelists including members of the metro council, representatives from Metro Public Works and neighborhood leaders with moderators from News Channel 5 and Fox 17. Check us out on NRC's YouTube channel.

CAHNA competed in the neighborhood showcase highlighting our traffic rallies. CAHNA was awarded 2nd place with a cash prize of $250 for the neighborhood coffers. As one of the winners CAHNA participated in a panel discussion with Tuwanda Coleman of News Channel 5 who also participated as one of the showcase judges.

Thanks to everyone who made the Neighborhood Celebrations a day of great fun for neighbors across Nashville!
