CAHNA Neighborhood Watch

Have you noticed the neighborhood watch signs popping up around the neighborhood? The CAHNA neighborhood watch program is firing up again. If you would like to participate in the neighborhood watch, please email CAHNA-Watch@comcast.net. You will receive information pertinent to safety in our neighborhood. All personal information remains confidential. Please include your name, address, and best contact phone number when you email.

If you would like a neighborhood watch sign, the cost is $15. Make checks payable to Caldwell Abbey Hall NA and drop off or mail to 306 Lynn Drive.

At the April 20 meeting Tricia Frantz will present a brief report from the March 26th crime prevention seminar presented by metro police south sector. Please join us for the April neighborhood meeting!

COAT DRIVE SUCCESS AT NORMAN BINKLEY ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

Thanks to the generosity of our neighbors, the CAHNA was able to help Norman Binkley Elementary School stock its coat closet just in time for winter. If you are interested in continuing to support our neighborhood school, please consider collecting boxtops from food labels and packages. Any boxtops you collect can be dropped off in the school office.

CALDWELL HALL SOCIAL EVENTS

On February 28, several Caldwell / Abbay Hall neighbors gathered at Los Arcos for great food and fellowship. We hope to make this a neighborhood tradition.

Fun was had by all at the first neighborhood progressive dinner held on March 8. It was standing room only! Thank you to our very generous hosts. Hadley Doolittle started us off with scrumptious appetizers. Jon & Carley Meade provided some fresh salad ... thank you Jon for all that slicing & dicing. Next we enjoyed delicious white bean chicken chili at the home of Ellen Britton & Bobby King. We wrapped things up at the home of Tricia & Dan Frantz with some luscious bread pudding with amaretto sauce and fresh strawberries. We already have reservations and host volunteers for the next progressive dinner. If you want to host or participate in the next dinner send an email to CAHNA-Info@comcast.net. Keep an eye out for information about the next dinner.

Information on Anti-Solicitation Ordinance:

Metro now has the address registration site for the new "no-knock" anti-solicitation ordinance online.

<http://www.nashville.gov/Metro-Clerk/Solicitation-Permits.aspx>

By registering your address at this site, solicitors and sales people will be prohibited from door-to-door solicitations at your home. This registration is good for one year (renewable annually).

JOIN THE CAHNA!

Take part in your neighborhood!

Join the Caldwell-Abbay Hall Neighborhood Association (CAHNA) and help make our neighborhood an even better place to live. Dues are only $10.00 per year.
